

About Clay County EMS

Clay County EMS is licensed by the Kansas Board of EMS as a Type IIA Ambulance Service. Clay County owns and operates four licensed Type IIA ground ambulances. Four ambulances are based in Clay Center

The EMS facility in Clay Center is staffed 24 hours per day by a crew of three certified EMS attendants and one on call certified EMS attendant that staffs the second out unit.

Clay County EMS is funded by a combination of tax support (about 50%) and user's fees (about 50%.) CCEMS staff does all billing and insurance claims filing for the department.

Clay County EMS responds to 700 to 800 calls annually.

